1. Motordrive SA's COMPLAINTS HANDLING PHILOSOPHY

Customer satisfaction is an integral part of Motordrive SA's client centred philosophy and culture and we consider client complaints as free gifts from our customers that provide us with the important insights that we need to enhance our service excellence to our clients and to ensure that we continuously provide them with world-class customer service experiences.

In accordance with global best-practice guidelines and standards, Motordrive SA has adopted the following five pillars for effective complaint handling and resolution policy and procedures:

1.1 Culture

Motordrive SA welcomes and values complaints and recognise that effective complaint handling will benefit its reputation and administration.

1.2 Principles

Motordrive SA's complaint handling system is founded on principles of:

- fairness;
- accessibility;
- responsiveness;
- efficiency; and
- complaints handling is a core competency of Motordrive SA's operations.

1.3 People

Motordrive SA's staff who handle complaints are skilled in their role and have a positive attitude when dealing with complainants. They are selected for that function and fully trained in the business operations of the FSP and in exemplary complaint handling practices.

1.4 Process

The following seven stages of the complaint handling process are described in Motordrive SA's internal procedures:

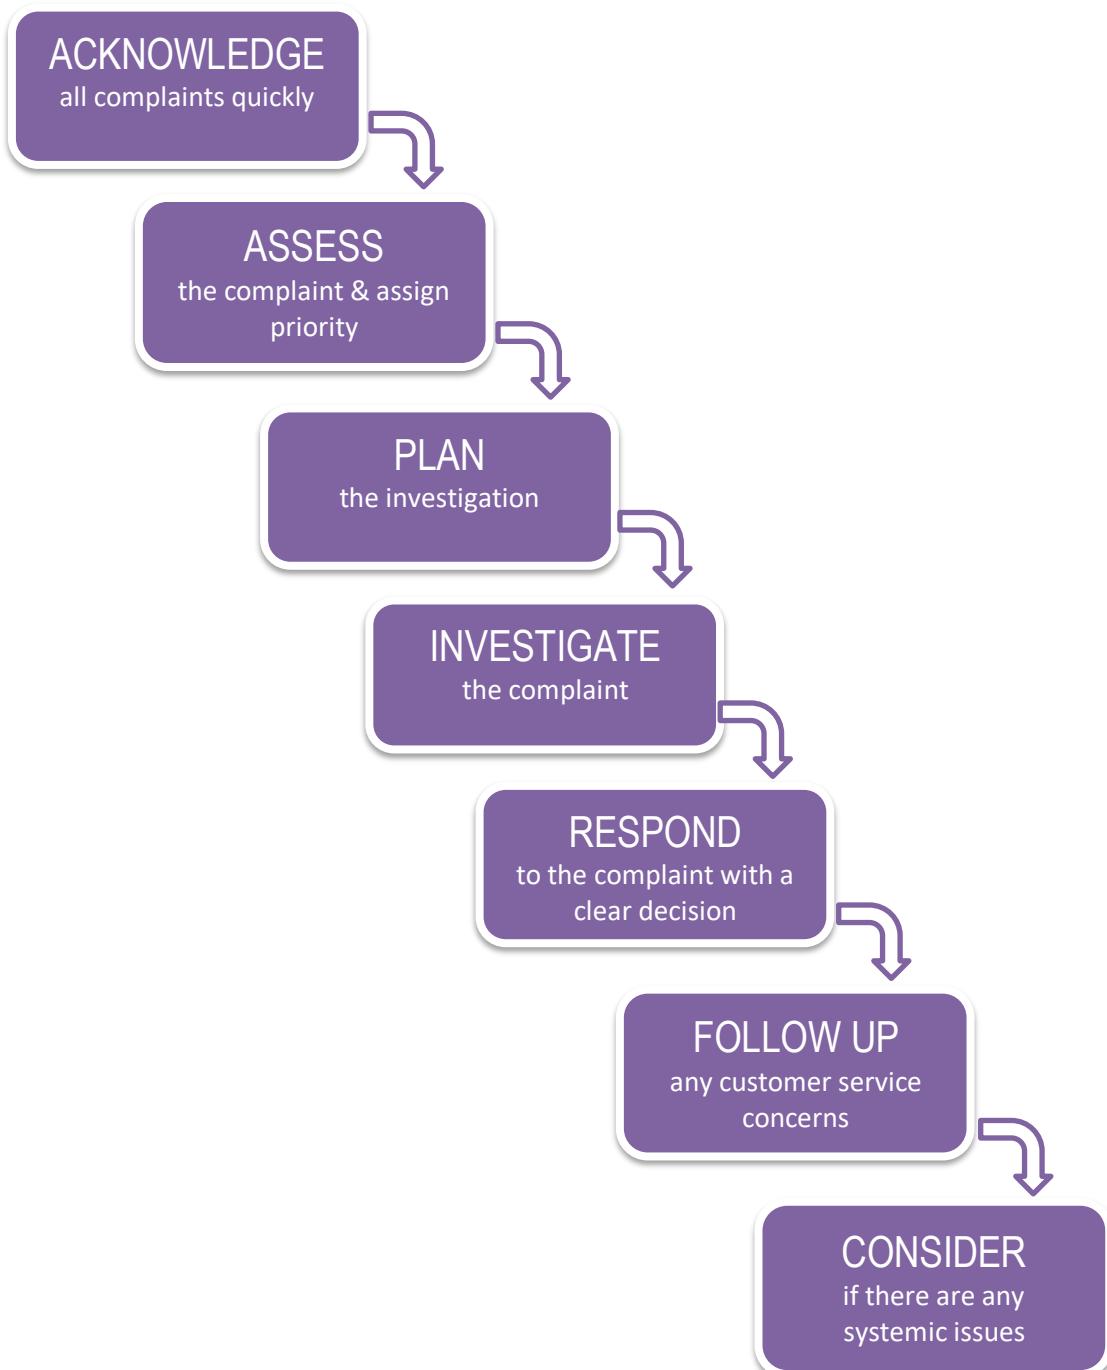

- Prompt acknowledgement of a complaint;
- Thorough assessment and assignment of priority to a complaint;
- Outlining and planning where investigation will be required;
- Resolving of factual issues and consideration of options for complaint resolution, through thorough investigation;
- Clear and informative communication and response to complainant;
- In the event where a complainant is not satisfied with the response, provision of internal review and escalation process must be offered together with external escalation options available.

1.5 Analysis

Motordrive SA's complaints information recorded, is scrutinised and analysed on an ongoing basis and deductions are used to better manage conduct risks, effect improved outcomes for clients and to prevent recurrences of poor outcomes and errors.

2. Motordrive SA's COMPLAINTS HANDLING METHODOLOGY

Motordrive SA has implemented a clear process for handling complaints:

3. STATUTORY DEFINITIONS

"client query" means a request to the provider or the provider's service supplier by or on behalf of a client, for information regarding the provider's financial products, financial services or related processes, or to carry out a transaction or action in relation to any such product or service;

"complainant" means a person who submits a complaint and includes a—

- (a) client;
- (b) person nominated as the person in respect of whom a product supplier should meet financial product benefits or that persons' successor in title;
- (c) person whose life is insured under a financial product that is an insurance policy;
- (d) person that pays a premium or an investment amount in respect of a financial product;
- (e) member;
- (f) person whose dissatisfaction relates to the approach, solicitation marketing or advertising material or an advertisement in respect of a financial product, financial service or related service of the provider, who has a direct interest in the agreement, financial product or financial service to which the complaint relates, or a person acting on behalf of a person referred to in (a) to (f);

"complaint" means an expression of dissatisfaction by a person to a provider or, to the knowledge of the provider, to the provider's service supplier relating to a financial product or financial service provided or offered by that provider which indicates or alleges, regardless of whether such an expression of dissatisfaction is submitted together with or in relation to a client query, that—

- (a) the provider or its service supplier has contravened or failed to comply with an agreement, a law, a rule, or a code of conduct which is binding on the provider or to which it subscribes;
- (b) the provider or its service supplier's maladministration or wilful or negligent action or failure to act, has caused the person harm, prejudice, distress or substantial inconvenience; or
- (c) the provider or its service supplier has treated the person unfairly;

"compensation payment" means a payment, whether in monetary form or in the form of a benefit or service, by or on behalf of a provider to a complainant to compensate the complainant for a proven or estimated financial loss incurred as a result of the provider's contravention, non-compliance, action, failure to act, or unfair treatment forming the basis of the complaint, where the provider accepts liability for having caused the loss concerned, but excludes any—

- (a) goodwill payment;
- (b) payment contractually due to the complainant in terms of the financial product or financial service concerned; or
- (c) refund of an amount paid by or on behalf of the complainant to the provider where such payment was not contractually due;

and includes any interest on late payment of any amount referred to in (b) or (c);

"goodwill payment" means a payment, whether in monetary form or in the form of a benefit or service, by or on behalf of a provider to a complainant as an expression of goodwill aimed at resolving a complaint, where the provider does not accept liability for any financial loss to the complainant as a result of the matter complained about;

"member" in relation to a complainant means a member of a—

- (a) pension fund as defined in section 1 (1) of the Pension Funds Act, 1956 (Act 52 of 1956);
- (b) friendly society as defined in section 1 (1) of the Friendly Societies Act, 1956 (Act 25 of 1956);
- (c) medical scheme as defined in section 1(1) of the Medical Schemes Act, 1998(Act131 of 1998); or
- (d) group scheme as contemplated in the Policyholder Protection Rules made under section 62 of the Long-term Insurance Act, 1998, and section 55 of the Short-term Insurance Act, 1998;

"rejected" in relation to a complaint means that a complaint has not been upheld and the provider regards the complaint as finalised after advising the complainant that it does not intend to take any further action to resolve the complaint and includes complaints regarded by the provider as unjustified or invalid, or where the complainant does not accept or respond to the provider's proposals to resolve the complaint;

"reportable complaint" means any complaint other than a complaint that has been—

- (a) upheld immediately by the person who initially received the complaint;
- (b) upheld within the provider's ordinary processes for handling client queries in relation to the type of financial product or financial service complained about, provided that such process does not take more than five business days from the date the complaint is received; or
- (c) submitted to or brought to the attention of the provider in such a manner that the provider does not have a reasonable opportunity to record such details of the complaint as may be prescribed in relation to reportable complaints; and

"upheld" means that a complaint has been finalised wholly or partially in favour of the complainant and that—

- (a) the complainant has explicitly accepted that the matter is fully resolved; or
- (b) it is reasonable for the provider to assume that the complainant has so accepted; and
- (c) all undertakings made by the provider to resolve the complaint have been met or the complainant has explicitly indicated its satisfaction with any arrangements to ensure such undertakings will be met by the provider within a time acceptable to the complainant.
